Handwritten musical score on 15 staves. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings. The score is written in a historical style, possibly for a flute and organ. The notation is dense and includes many slurs and ties. The staves are numbered 1 through 15 on the right side. The handwriting is in ink on aged paper.

A handwritten musical score on ten staves. The notation is in black ink on aged paper. The score is organized into two systems of five staves each, separated by a large brace on the left. The first system contains a variety of musical notes, rests, and dynamic markings. The second system begins with the word "Requies" written in a cursive hand on the first staff. The notation continues with various musical symbols, including slurs, ties, and accidentals. At the bottom right of the page, there are additional handwritten notes: "ad libitum" and "al vivo" written vertically, and "caba y p..." written horizontally. The page number "163" is in the top left corner, and "10 12" is in the top right corner.

Staff 1

pp piano

A handwritten musical score on a system of 12 staves. The notation is in ink and includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, beams, and slurs. The score is divided into measures by vertical bar lines. The first measure contains a complex rhythmic pattern with many beamed notes. The second measure has a few notes and a slur. The third measure is more complex, featuring many notes and some slurs. The fourth measure contains a few notes and a slur. The fifth measure has a few notes and a slur. The sixth measure contains a few notes and a slur. The seventh measure has a few notes and a slur. The eighth measure contains a few notes and a slur. The ninth measure has a few notes and a slur. The tenth measure contains a few notes and a slur. The eleventh measure has a few notes and a slur. The twelfth measure contains a few notes and a slur. The score is written in a cursive style, typical of handwritten musical notation.
